

Research meeting on active labor market policies

Date: 18th of September 2024

Location: Scandic Klara, Slöjdgatan 7

Programme

Session 1

- 09.00 Welcome
- 09.10 Long-term employment and health effects of active labor market programs, Michael Rosholm Aarhus University
- 09.50 Committee deliberation and gender differences in influence, Amelie Schiprowski, University of Bonn
- 10.30 Coffee break

Session 2:

- 11.00 Deadwood labor? The effects of eliminating employment protection for older workers, David Seim, Stockholm University
- 11.30 Experimental evidence on job ads and applicant gender, Karin Hederos, Stockholm university
- 12.00 Lunch break

Keynote session:

- 13.30 Jeffrey Smith, University of Wisconsin-Madison
- 14.30 How can traditional AI improve search and matching? Evidence from 59 million personalized job recommendations, Lena Hensvik, Uppsala university
- 15.00 Coffee break

Session 3:

- 15.45 Private providers in active labor market Policy, Lisa Laun, IFAU
- 16.15 Individualized benefits and access to active labor market programs boost refugee women's economic integration, Linna Martén, Stockholm university

18.30 Dinner at Scandic Klara