Gender Economics of Labor Markets

and

Lindahl Lectures

by

Professor Claudia Goldin, Harvard University

Uppsala, 12-13 September 2017

The Institute for Evaluation of Labour Market and Education Policy (IFAU) and Uppsala Center for Labor Studies (UCLS) invite researchers and policy makers to a conference on the topic of gender economics of labor markets. The conference is organized in conjunction with the Lindahl Lectures, delivered by Professor Claudia Goldin, Harvard University and organized by Uppsala University's Economics Department. Lectures are open to the public.

Professor Goldin's Lindahl Lectures start off the program each day and are followed by presentations of invited and submitted papers.

You are welcome to participate for any subset of the conference!

Submission deadline: May 15 2017

Please submit your paper to asa.landqvist@ifau.uu.se. The acceptance decision will be communicated by June 22. Registration link for conference participation will be sent out later. The number of participants is limited. The conference is free of charge for researchers and graduate students, including conference dinner, lunches, and coffee. The organizers will cover travel costs and accommodation for presenters.

The conference venue is Ekonomikum, Kyrkogårdsgatan 6, Uppsala.
